

Wilson Canyon Park

14450 Olive View Drive, Sylmar, California, 91342

Nestled in the foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains above the northeastern San Fernando Valley community of Sylmar, 240-acre Wilson Canyon Park offers visitors secluded wilderness, a network of easy-to-moderate trails, a rich variety of plant communities, and abundant wildlife within minutes of a densely populated urban area. Popular with hikers, equestrians, mountain bikers, bird watchers, and families on picnics, Wilson Canyon Park features verdant oak woodlands, a year-round creek lined with native alders, sycamores, and bigleaf maple, and commanding vistas.

Directions: From the Foothill Freeway (210), take the Roxford exit, turning north to Olive View Drive. Proceed past the main hospital and the four-way stop at Bledsoe Street. The park entrance road is located approximately 200 yards east of Bledsoe, just before Fenton Avenue. Parking is at the trailhead, located at the northwest terminus of the entry road.
