

Summer 2007 Programs

July 1, 8am-10am

Early Morning Bird Hike

King Gillette Ranch is a marvelous place to see and hear the early morning birds that make the Santa Monica Mountains their home.

July 7, 9am-11am

Wilderness Survival

Join Anna, your friendly neighborhood naturalist, as we explore the trails of King Gillette Ranch with an eye for surviving in the wilderness. Learn about the ten essentials and the basics of building a survival shelter. This moderate hike is suitable for families with children. Bring water and sturdy shoes.

July 10, 7pm-8:30pm

Old-fashioned Family Campfire

Nothing says summer like stories, songs and marshmallows under the stars. Join rangers and naturalists around the fire for this summer park tradition. Bring your friends, a blanket for the grass, songs to sing, and a flashlight if you need it. Make this a Tuesday night family night all summer long!

July 14, 9am-11am

King Gillette Ranch Walking Tour

Who was here before? Explore the history of the King Gillette Ranch through stories of the people who lived there and the buildings they left behind.
